Dale Maurice Moon Little was known about Dale's death, however, the following has been discovered.

He was born in Lilydale, Vic, on 5 June 1947. He completed his secondary education at Lilydale High School. This was followed by attending Burnley Technical College where he graduated as a Diplomate of Horticulture in 1966. On leaving the college he worked on his father's orchard. Dale entered the Army on 17 July 1968 as a National Serviceman with the third intake that year. He commenced OTU on 2 August and graduated with Class 3/68 on 21 December 1968.

Dale was allocated to the Royal Australian Signals Corps and posted to 2 Signals Regiment. On completion of his National Service, Dale discharged from the Army. Dale died on 1 November 1993 and was buried on 4 November.

The association has no information his post-Army life, his family (he was married) or the cause of his death.
