Before entering National Service he worked as an Insurance Chief Clerk with General Accident Fire and Life Assurance Corp. Alan commenced his officer training at OTU with Class 4/69, graduating with Class 1/70 on 16 Jul 1970. He was posted to 9 RAR at Enoggerra, Queensland.

Sadly, Alan lost a short but brave battle with metastatic melanoma shortly before midnight on 19 December 2012. His funeral was held at Burstow's Funeral Chapel, Ruthven St, Toowoomba, at 2:30 pm on Friday 28 December 2012, 22 years to the day that Alan and Rhonda lost their son, Justin, to cancer in December 1990.

Brian McNamara (an ex-Nasho) who went to school with Alan said of Alan 'A great officer and bloke, he will be sadly missed!'
