

Brian Roberts (1/70)

6710166 Brian Albert Roberts was born at Newcastle in January 1946 and completed his secondary education at Woloroi College, Orange. Before entering the Army as a National Serviceman he was employed as an accountant with John L. Bush and Campbell, Chartered Accountants, Wagga. He was allocated to the Royal Australian Infantry Corps and was initially posted to 1 RTB, but by April 1971 had been posted to 1 RAR and served in Singapore there with Bruce Selleck (2/70). Brian attended the 2013 National Reunion in Sydney.

Brian collapsed with a heart attack and died at the Stuart Mall on 11th April 2014, aged 68. He was a former partner in the successful accounting firm Bush and Campbell, was a Wagga City Rugby Union stalwart and a former treasurer of the Riverine Club. After a private family Cremation, a Memorial Service of Thanksgiving was held in the Wesley Uniting Church, Wagga Wagga, on Thursday, April 17th 2014