A Memorial for all National Servicemen

On September 8, 2010 in a sea of blue blazers and berets, almost 5,000 National Servicemen and their families watched the solemn ceremony to unveil and dedicate the National Memorial to National Servicemen, set against the imposing backdrop of the Australian War Memorial in Canberra. The sandstone, granite and bronze fountain is inscribed:

*'Dedicated to All Australian
National Servicemen, and in Memory of Those Who Died.'*

A Message from the Planning Committee

This event is jointly hosted by the Australian War Memorial and the National Servicemen's Association of Australia. It is not an Association event and all NASHOs are encouraged to attend regardless of your organisation or group.

Each year on the 8th September, a National Service Ceremony has been conducted at the AWM for all National Servicemen, however due to falling attendances this is likely to be the last National event of this kind.
